Sales Performance | Monthly Trend & Product Mix

Monthly Sales Trend (2025)

Sales by Price Bucket

January spike caused by aggressive sales campaign → led to February stockout (-32% quantity)

Premium + High Priced = 64.36% of revenue

Supply Chain Issue | The January–February Effect

January 2025

- ▶ Sales: ~$100K (spike)
- ▶ Campaign drove surge
- ▶ High orders placed
- ▶ Stock depleted

February 2025

- ▶ Sales: $70.56K (-31.7%)
- ▶ Quantity: -32.1%
- ▶ Orders: -25.7%
- ▶ Near out-of-stock

Root Cause

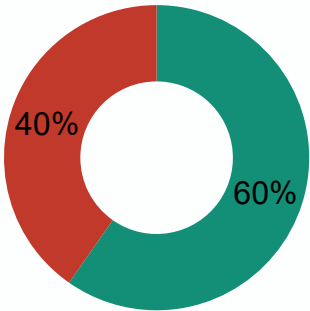

- ▶ Aggressive monthly target
- ▶ Supply chain unprepared
- ▶ Suppliers couldn't restock
- ▶ Customers switched away

2024 Comparison: No spikes → steady inventory → better customer retention

Why 100% Churn Is NOT a Problem Here

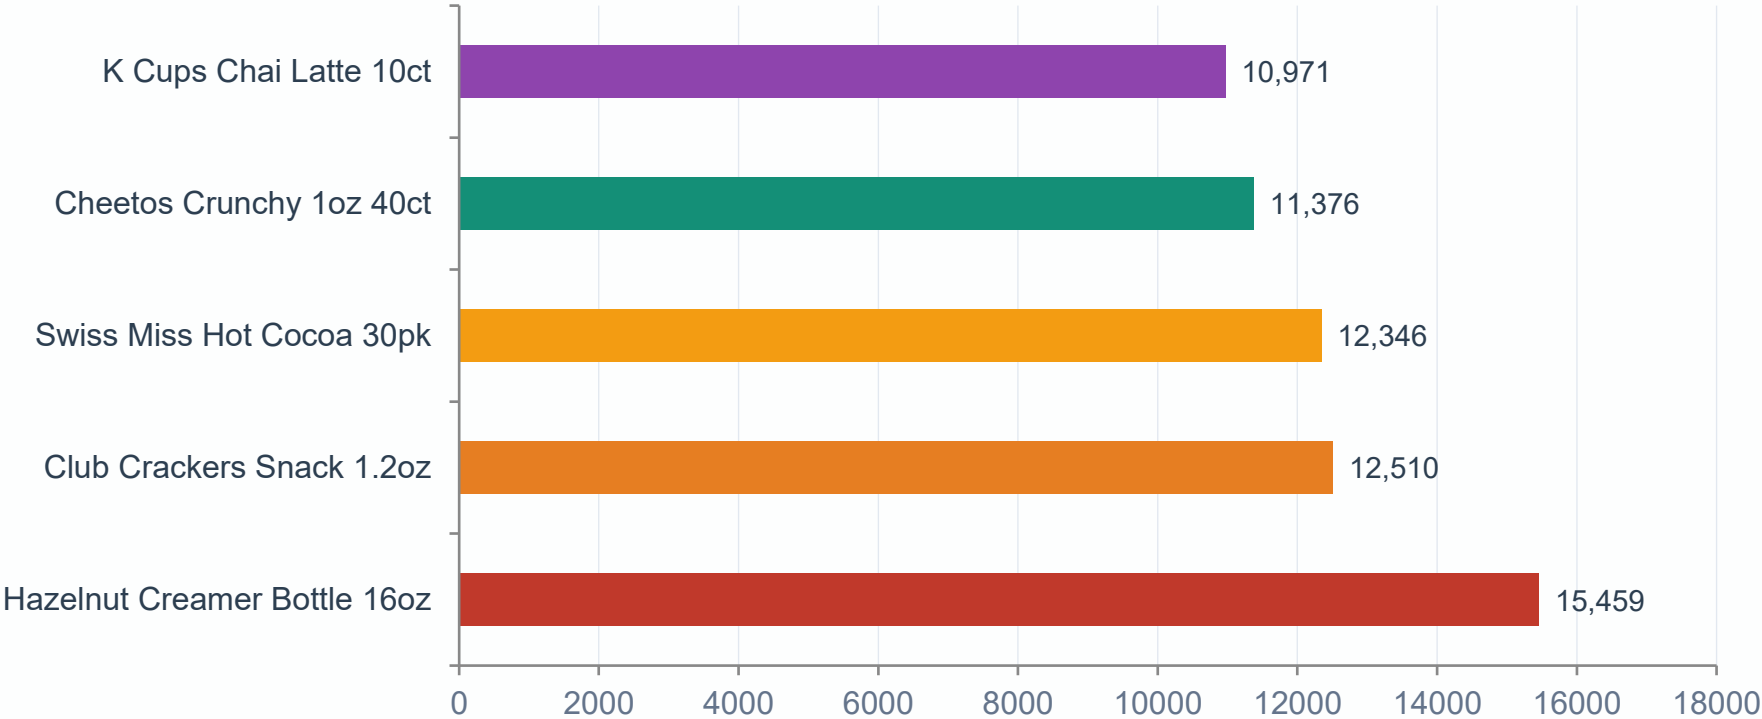

- ▶ Location in hilly Uttarakhand — trekking & camping destination
- ▶ Each customer buys once in bulk (1 order, 1 item, large qty)
- ▶ Top products: Hand Soap, Paper Towels, Muffins — trekking essentials
- ▶ Transient customer base — different people every visit
- ▶ Growth is 100% word-of-mouth driven from trekking community
- ▶ One bad experience = negative word-of-mouth = revenue collapse

Strategy: Perfect execution on every transaction. Never stock out. Word of mouth is the only marketing.

Product Performance | Top Contributing Products

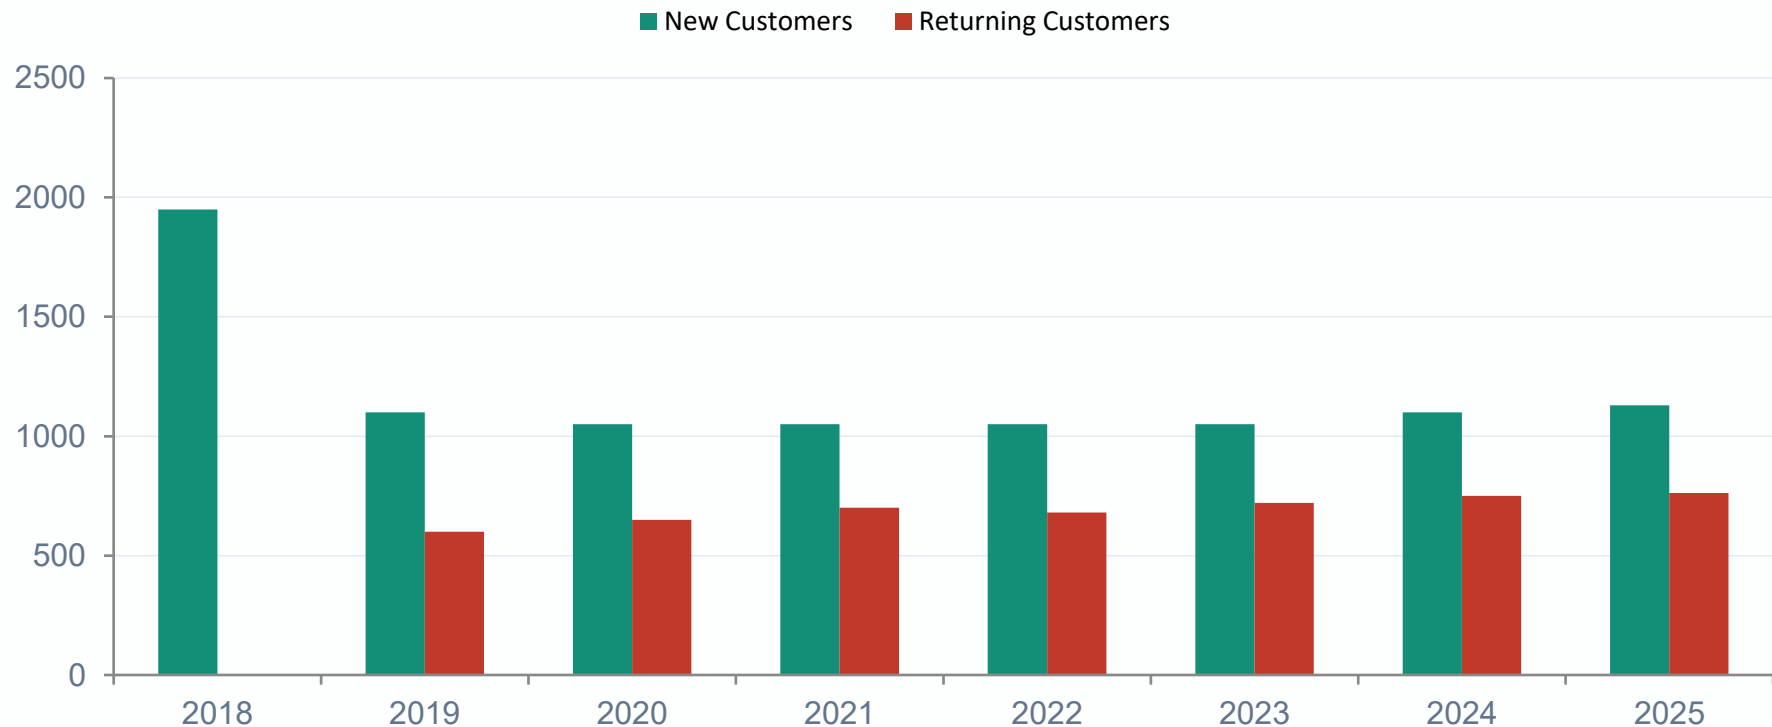

FY 2025

Top 5 Products by Revenue

All top products fall in Premium/High-Priced category. No budget products in top 10.

Customer Trend | New vs Returning Customers (2018–2025)

New customers consistently outnumber returning — retention remains the biggest growth lever

Strategic Recommendations | FY 2026 Action Plan

01

Loyalty & Retention Program

Rewards, deals and prizes for top customers in mainland stores to prevent losing high-value customers

02

Fix Supply Chain First

Resolve inventory & supplier capacity before setting high monthly targets. Add backup suppliers.

03

Premium Product Focus

Concentrate on Premium & High-Priced categories (64% revenue). Phase out Budget products.

04

New Customer Offers

Welcome deals to convert 1,130 new 2025 customers into returning loyal customers.

05

Sustainable Marketing

Replace heavy sale campaigns to attract customers with ads, billboards and area-specific marketing to grow steadily.

06

Target Steady under $90K/Month

Consistent monthly revenue beats spike-and-crash. Easier on supply chain, better retention.
